

Casting for: Dracula Bites- Performed September 6, 7, 8, 13, 14, & 15, 2019
“A Barter Theatre Comedy”
Director Ms Pat Shull
Auditions May 26, 2019 from 4-6pm

Synopsis:

Dracula Bites centers on Valley Dale Playhouse and its struggle to come up with a production that will pack the house and keep the struggling company afloat. The troupe turns to Gregory Pastel, a flamboyant and failed New York director and playwright, who uses this opportunity to complete his dream project of adapting a version of Bram Stoker's Dracula that, barring nudity and wild animals, leaves out nothing. This is a comedy like you've never seen before!

AUDITION NEEDS:

Flora Robinson- 25-50 years old. Production Manager of the Playhouse.

Mora Pastel- 25-40 years old. Actor turned director turned playwright; wife of the director and a hand model.

Mike Morehead- 40-60 years old. Local Mortician who plays the insane Renfro-uh, Renfield!

Gus Timberlake-35-60 years old. Store owner playing Harker who comes to Transylvania to kill Dra-Kool-la.

Sara Jenkins- 30-50 years old. Plays Harker's wife Mina.

Auditions will be held in Cox Hall next door to the theatre at 214 S. Mechanic St. in Pendleton on Sunday, May 26, 2019 from 4-6pm. Actors should bring their conflict calendars through September 15, 2019, and expect to do cold reading from the script. A rehearsal schedule will be generated after cast has been selected.
