CASTING CALL

Director Pat Gosnell will conduct auditions for The Clemson Little Theatre's comedy FOUR WEDDINGS AND AN ELVIS by Nancy Frick on Sunday June 27 and Monday June 28 from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm in Cox Hall, which is located next door to the theatre.

This show was slated to be our 2020-2021 Season Opener, but due to Covid-19, had to be postponed. Many of the original cast are coming back, but conflicts have prevented others, so we are holding open auditions for the following roles- expect to do cold reading from the script:

(Ages are approximate):

- Sandy - The wedding chapel owner. Four-times-married-three-times-divorced, owner of a wedding chapel in Las Vegas.
- Bev - The angry bride: Recently dumped, Bev is intent on a revenge marriage, but with the benefit of actually loving the man she is using to get even. Totally naïve and romantic.
- Fiona - The bride, tough ex-con: Fiona never got a chance to make life work – bad home life, poor choice in friends, even worse choice in boyfriends, now recently paroled and united with her postman pen pal love.
- Marvin - The groom, gentle postal worker: As well versed in zip codes as his scriptures, Marvin knows to look on the inside and past the tattoos for an eternal companion.

Show Overview:

Welcome to Las Vegas where Sandy owns a wedding chapel. In this hilarious, heart-warming comedy, we witness some of her most memorable clients. These memorable characters, and an Elvis, make this a comedic treat not to be missed. Mild, adult language.

Please bring your theatre résumé and a non-returnable photo (photocopy is ok) of yourself. Also bring a list of conflict dates from June 30, 2021 through September 12, 2021. A flexible rehearsal schedule is available.
