How To Teach Your Children Shakespeare

By Ken Ludwig

(Playwright of The Fox on the Fairway, The Game’s Afoot and other Broadway comedies featured at The Clemson Little Theatre.)

From The Lion King to Hamilton, many of the best-known works in the English language have been inspired by Shakespeare’s stories, characters, and themes. In How to Teach Your Children Shakespeare, acclaimed playwright Ken Ludwig provides you with the tools you need to understand Shakespeare for the first time.

"I highly recommend Ken Ludwig’s lucid, accessible and inspiring book to all who have a love of language and history.” — Sir Derek Jacobi

Available at Amazon.com, Barnesandnoble.com and at many local bookstores.

Holmes for the Holidays

By Ken Ludwig
Directed by Pat Gosnell
SETTING
The living room of the mansion of William Gillette on the Connecticut River near East Haddam, Connecticut

TIME
December 1936

CAST
William Gillette ..... Jeff Land
Martha Gillette ..... Genie Heslin
Felix Geisel ..... Ralph Welsh
Madge Geisel ..... Carrie Boyce
Simon Bright ..... Trevor Durham
Aggie Wheeler ..... Bella Prado
Inspector Goring ..... Patricia DeVroomen
Daria Chase ..... Paula Lovelace

AUTHOR’S NOTE
William Gillette was a star of the American stage during the early part of the 20th century. He wrote the play Sherlock Holmes in collaboration with Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and he starred in it with enormous success in both New York and London for a total of 1,300 performances spread over thirty years. He became associated with Holmes in the public’s imagination; and with his royalties from this and other plays, he built a replica of a medieval castle on the Connecticut River filled with gadgets representing the latest technology. It was here that he entertained casts of his latest New York hits, and he remained beloved to his fans until his death in the eighties. Gillette Castle is open to the public to this day.

Meet the Cast

Carrie Boyce (Madge Geisel) was most recently a part of CLT’s production of The Fox on the Fairway. Some of her favorite productions include Miracle on 34th St., The Best Christmas Pageant Ever, and her first production, Arsenic and Old Lace at the Anderson Theatre. Carrie is a special education teacher at Starr Iva Middle. For fun, Carrie loves to golf and cheer on her Chicago Cubs. She thanks her husband Al for always supporting her. And finally, a huge thank you to this amazing cast and crew.

Patricia DeVroomen (Inspector Goring) is delighted to be back at CLT, where she last appeared as Florence in The Odd Couple (female version). She has had roles in many upstate theatres in such plays as Sherlock Holmes the Final Adventure as Irene Adler, And Then There Were None as Justice Wargrave, and A Murder is Announced as Miss Blacklock. A native of Britain, she also in the past has appeared in Britain, France, and Denmark in both indoor and outdoor theatre.

Trevor Durham (Simon Bright) is appearing in his fourth show at CLT. He is a graduate of West Oak High School, where his theatre journey began. This show has been a favorite of his for a long time and he is excited to finally be a part of it. "The Game's Afoot! Follow your spirit; and upon this charge, cry 'God for Harry! England! and Saint George!'"

Genie Heslin (Martha Gillette) retired from the New York court system, moved to Anderson in 2020, and discovered her love for community theatre. Past performances include I Hate Hamlet as Lillian, One Christmas Eve at Evergreen Mall in the ensemble, Blithe Spirit as Madam Arcati, You Can’t Get There from Here as Myrtle, Beverly Hillbillies as Mrs. Drysdale, and A Christmas Carol as Mrs. Fezziwig. She is delighted and grateful to work with this fun and talented cast and crew. Shout out to her neighbors, family, and friends for their enthusiastic support!

Jeff Land (William Gillette) is a native of Pendleton, and he's excited to be "back on the boards" after a long hiatus. He has performed in numerous roles in local theater over the past seventeen years. His last performance at CLT was Stewart Minor/Dracula in Dracula Bites. Some of his favorite roles include
Atticus Finch in To Kill A Mockingbird, Joe Clay in Days of Wine and Roses, and Stage Manager in Our Town. He hopes you enjoy this zany show and he appreciates your support of community theater.

Paula Lovelace (Daria Chase) has performed in the upstate of SC and GA for the past 30 years, in community and semi-professional theatres in over 100 productions. For over three decades, she has had the honor of serving as a school counselor. Paula is currently the counselor at Southwood Academy of the Arts in Anderson District 5. She loves to support and empower students on their unique journeys through education and personal growth. Paula is thankful for the lifelong friendships that have been made through the theatre. She is happy to announce her recent marriage to Dirk Lovelace.

Bella Prado (Aggie Wheeler) is thrilled to be back and in her fourth show at CLT! She recently appeared in CLT’s productions of Blithe Spirit and The 39 Steps, as well as Market Theatre’s She Kills Monsters. She sends much love to the fellow cast and crew who helped bring it all together. Once more unto the breach, dear friends, once more!

Ralph Welsh (Felix Geisel) is a Principal Lecturer at Clemson University who discovered the joys of upstate community theatre 10 years ago. Some of his favorite performances include Gus/Harker in Dracula Bites, The Scarecrow in Wizard of Oz, Rick Steadman in The Nerd, Duane Early in Duck Hunter Shoots Angel, and Felix Geisel in The Game’s Afoot. He wants to thank Pat Gosnell and the cast for all the fun times that have been had preparing for this production, as well as family, friends, and members of the audience for their audible support from behind the bright stage lights. Here’s to the revels!

Pat Gosnell (Director) is always happy to be directing at CLT, having most recently directed Blithe Spirit and Four Weddings and an Elvis. Other CLT productions she's especially proud of include Charley's Aunt, The Lion in Winter, My Three Angels, That Championship Season, Born Yesterday, and Crossing Delancey. Other directing credits include I Hate Hamlet, Barefoot in the Park, and Love, Sex & the IRS. Pat is happily retired from Clemson University. She currently has one husband (Ted) and five cats.
Director’s Note

There is a fun aspect of The Game's Afoot that those of you who haven't "done" theatre may not know of. Actor's LOVE to pepper their conversation with quotes from other shows, whether it's plays they've acted in or ones they've read, not to mention favorite movies! Ken Ludwig obviously hangs out with a lot of actors. In the case of this play, the characters especially love quoting Shakespeare, which brought back a cherished memory that I had forgotten for years.

In the days of the Clemson Shakespeare Festival, I spent time helping and just generally hanging around the Brooks Center. The founder of the festival, Jim Andreas, and two founding members of this theatre, Albert Holt and Roger Rollin, would do the same thing! I think it was a competition to find who could use the most obscure quote possible, and I LOVED it! If you knew them, I hope this play sparks special memories for you as well.  Pat Gosnell

The next CAYT play

Book by Roald Dahl
Dramatized by Richard R. George
Directed by Chris Rose

When young Charlie Bucket wins a golden ticket to the mysterious Wonka Chocolate Factory, it’s the chance of a lifetime to feast on the sweets and chocolates that have always been right under his nose but unaffordable for the Bucket family. Inside, Charlie and the other winners encounter a magical world full of amazement, innovation, sugary treats, Oompa-Loompas and, of course, the eccentric Willy Wonka himself.
